

SINGTAX®

SINGTAX® Corporate & SINGTAX® Personal: <https://taxconnection.com.sg/#products>

i) Who would best benefit from this solution?

Tax agents and in-house tax professionals. Tax agents will benefit more as they prepare more tax computations.

ii) Short Write-Up

SINGTAX® radically reduces the time taken to complete a tax computation as it is a fully automated and integrated professional tax software with preformatted templates which conforms to the Singapore Income Tax Act. All tax changes announced in Budget Speeches are updated frequently and the program will prompt you to make (or not make) any of such new changes/ incentives for the applicable periods.

iii) Why should tax agents and in-house tax professionals use this solution?

SINGTAX® Corporate is now able to perform seamless filing to the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore which eliminates casting errors. With automation coupled with preformatted templates, the tax software promises lesser time to complete and submit a tax computation. In-built tax calculations and tax rules also ensure accuracy and completeness of the tax computation.
